KZN Arts and Culture MEC Dr Ntuthuko Mahlaba announced ground-breaking plans for the department to build a R440 000 combo court facility to assist the community of Ward 2 in Emabhuqwini Nkandla.

The combo court is a multi-sporting codes discipline facility that accommodates the various sporting needs of the community. Mahlaba also announced the contractor, MDJ Construction who will be employing 10 local people and transferring skills for the duration of the construction. The combo court will be built at Inkosi Sishabuza Secondary School. Mahlaba was also joined by MEC for Economic Development, Tourism and Environmental Affairs, Siboniso Duma who also pledged that his Department will bring economic opportunities in the area as part of Operation Vula initiatives to boost local businesses.

Mahlaba was speaking during Ingoma Competition held in the area in which a winner walked away with R14 500 while the runner-up was awarded R10 500 in prize money. Every participating group received received R3000.
